Letter from The Editor

Hey Folks

I'll get started by reporting that we had a great day at WSS even though we had some bumps along the way. If you're patient, I'll talk about that more in the editor's letter. The dance floor was packed and we had a great crowd all the way to the end.

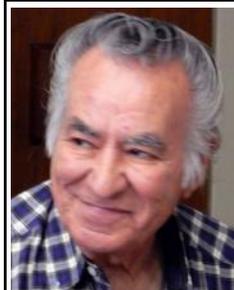

The Guest band was "Bite The Bullet". Shelley Elkan leads the band with rhythm guitar and vocals. Band members are Steve French on pedal steel and vocals, Steve Clark on bass and vocals, Olen Dillingham on fiddle, 5 string mandolin and accordion, Gary Blodgett on lead guitar and vocals, Rob Shotwell on guitar and vocals, Bill Cornett on drums and vocals and yours truly Ronnie Elkan on fiddle. It was a thrill to see Olen play his accordion, not something we get to see and hear every dance. Big thanks to the band for coming out to play for us.

"The House Band" came up next and as usual were great. Thanks for your talent and time. The band consists of Jimmy Baughman on guitar and vocals, Ralph Chase on keyboard and vocals, Lenny Serdahl Sr. on guitar and vocals, Bill Cornett on drums and vocals, Ronnie Elkan on fiddle. Larry Deleon came up for awhile to play drums and sing. Guest vocalists were Shelley Elkan, Nancy Long, Meghan McCoy, and Tom and Maxine McVeigh.

Let me address one of the bumps I mentioned at the beginning of my article. First of all Sacramento County has a mask mandate due to Covid. I am aware that we had guests that didn't wear a mask and I am also aware that some folks wore their face covering. The WSS tries to walk the line and post what is asked of us and supply masks and hand wash. We just are not equipped to enforce it due to the fact that folks are dancing, drinking and eating. We're there to have fun so let's be patient with everyone's desires.

Well we are getting close to our annual Hall Of Fame weekend.

Milton “Sammy” Sams

July 18, 1936—May 30, 2021
Inducted October 2, 2016

Milton “Sammy” Sams was born in Lucas County, Iowa, in 1936. He grew up listening to all kinds of Western Swing Music. There was the music on the juke boxes, the radio had the Grand Ole Opry and Louisiana Hayride plying every weekend. And, of course, living in Iowa, you listened to the WHO radio station located in Des Moines. And, also, you listened to music out of Del Rio, Texas, hearing Bob Wills and the Texas Playboys and other varieties of Country Music.

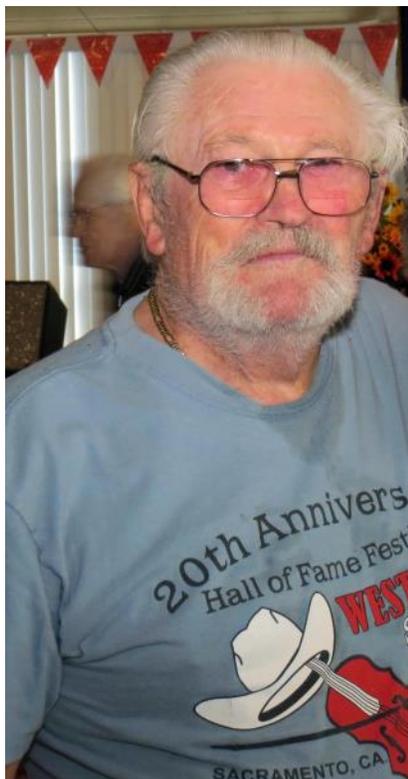

From this, Sammy developed his love for Western Swing. He would regularly attend any and all dances in the area, particularly barn dances listening to fiddles, guitars, accordions, and harmonicas.

Entering in the Navy to serve his Country, he continued to look for Country Music venues to go listen and dance. And Sammy was always great to volunteer to help out whenever needed.

Moving to the Sacramento area some years ago, Sammy was introduced to the Sacramento Western Swing Society. He not only attended to listen and dance, but he also became a volunteer helping to set up and take down whatever was needed for the dancing and entertainment. And his devoted love for Western Swing has been much recognized by his dedication and helpfulness.

Sammy has been an outstanding supporter, helper and promoter.

Sammy you are a rare breed.

TOMMY PERKINS

May 10, 1934 - June 7, 2003
Inducted October 4, 1987

For more than fifty years, Tommy Perkins has devoted himself to performing as a full-time working drummer. At age fifteen he made his first recording as a Texas Playboy. That was the 1950 hit single “Faded Love” by Bob Wills. Perkins has since gone on to become recognized as an expert of western swing drumming. According to Perkins, “Western swing combines a unique blend of country, jazz, rock ‘n’ roll, and ethnic flavors. You need to know how to play all of these styles to be able to play western swing well.”

Today Tommy plays nationwide with The Playboys II. They also have their own radio show. “We play for a weekly broadcast called The Lincoln County Cowboy Symposium,” Tommy explains. “It’s carried on over sixty stations.” Perkins also works locally in Oklahoma City with his home group, Talk Of The Town, which plays 1940s music.

Tommy’s name shows up on several western swing CDs, with artists such as Lefty Frizzell, The Playboys II, Dayna Wills, Tom Morrell, Herb Ellis, Billy Contreras, Leon Rausch, Billy Jack Wills, and Bob Wills.

Perkins says he works at improving his playing by practicing every day, attending drum workshops, watching drummer videos, and reading the educational sections of Modern Drummer magazine. “Steve Gadd and Vinnie Colaiuta are two of the current drummers I like to listen to,” he says. “Past influences have been Buddy Rich, Gene Krupa, Mel Lewis, and western swing great Smokey Deacus.”

In 1987, Perkins took his place as a living legend of western swing when he was inducted into the Western Swing Society’s hall of fame. Tommy’s past, present, and future assure plenty of opportunities to continue as a seasoned drummer.

RIP Milton “Sammy” Sams
Born July 18, 1936-Died May 30, 2021

A Celebration of Life Service was held for Milton Ira (Sammy) Sams on Saturday, September 25, 2021, at 1:00 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Chariton, Iowa. Burial followed at the Bethel Cemetery.

Milton Ira (Sammy) Sams, son of Raymond Franklin and Mary Virginia (Virgie) Fenton Sams, was born July 18, 1936, in Cedar Township North of Russell, Iowa. He departed this life Sunday evening, May 30, 2021, at 84 years, 10 months, and 12 days at Sharp Coronado Hospital in San Diego, California.

Sam was always on the go, keeping busy and active working at many jobs as a kid. His dad passed away when he was 16, and he was on his own from then, working with farmers. He went to Colorado, worked repairing T.V.s and on to California with his business manager and continued in the same work learning the trade. He then joined the Navy serving 7 months overseas on the USS LUZON. Traveling across the country working his way, he ended up in Florida working construction after a hurricane, working doing gunite on a bridge. Returning to Iowa, he was always telling stories of the guys he had worked with and how they had become friends for a lifetime.

He had an 8th grade education but could do any job and figure it out. He was a traveling man. He would jump in a vehicle and hit the road here and gone. He always had goofy sayings that got your attention. He took on his two nephews, teaching them the carpenter trade. Sam traveled around with the Western Swing helping out, dancing, and receiving awards. He was inducted into the Hall of Fame of the Western Swing Music Society of the Southwest. He received from the Governor of Oklahoma, a commendation of recognition of the musical promotion of the Western Swing Society.
